Join us at 10:45am for our Adult Life Together classes:

Study Methods and the Letter of James — Join us to learn an inductive Bible study method through a study of the letter of James. This study will include suggested weekly study at home.

(Facilitator: Melissa Mueller, Dining Room)

Practicing the Way: Silence and Solitude — Practicing the Way is an organization dedicated to producing resources for spiritual formation. We will use their materials to spend four weeks going deeper into the practice of Silence and Solitude. The class will consist of video teachings and discussion, as well as practical steps for incorporating this ancient practice into our walk with Jesus.

(Facilitator: Rachel Gulleson, Classroom A)

Read, Listen, Reflect: Reading Bible in Community —

The Evangelical Covenant Church was founded by people who gathered around the Scriptures. They listened to the biblical texts being read and the inner promptings of God's Spirit, then shared with each other their thoughts and reflections. This often led to changed lives and service in the community. This practice has been rediscovered in recent years in many Covenant churches. Participants will be invited to read and share reflections or to simply listen. Different perspectives are expected and respected.

(Facilitator: Mark Olson, Classroom C)

Prime Timers, Thursday, May 2, 12:30pm - Join this fun group of people for a potluck lunch in the church dining room. Enjoy great food and fellowship!

Ivy, Blackberries, and invasives, oh my!

Discovery Trail invasive removal work party, Saturday, May 11, 9-noon. Heavy gloves and sense of humor helpful. RSVP to Nancy Lewis, nancySLewis85@gmail.com.

World Relief's School Readiness Week is coming

August 5-9! If you have not volunteered with this fun, impactful week and would like to hear more about what is involved, we invite you to attend an interest meeting on Sunday, May 5, at 11:45 a.m. - 1 p.m. in the BCC Dining Room. We will provide a light lunch. If you have questions, contact Pastor Adria at adria@bellinghamcov.org.
